

Symposium Design for Values

Date : Friday 10 January 2020
Time : 10:00 – 14:00
Venue : Aula Conference Centre
Mekelweg 5
2628 CC Delft

On the occasion of the Dies Natalis celebration, TU Delft and the Delft Design for Values Institute are organising a symposium on Design for Values.

Design for Values means making design choices with explicit reference to and for reasons of moral and social values throughout the entire design or engineering process.

This symposium centers around research supporting design for values, with a focus on Value Dynamics (how to design for values that change over time) and Value Conflicts (how to deal with frictions that emerge between two or more values within design and engineering processes).

The event that will be hosted by Pieter Vermaas, Nynke Tromp and Hessel Winsemius, on behalf of the Delft Design for Values Institute.

Confirmed speakers so far include Roy Bendor, Marja Elsinga, Doris van Halem, Anja Hanjalic, Maurice Hartevelde, Jeroen van den Hoven, Ibo van de Poel, as well as this year's Honorary Doctorate recipients Batya Friedman and Marco Steinberg.
